BELKASOFT X DAY HAS ARRIVED!

We are happy to announce the launch of Belkasoft Evidence Center X!! With this upgraded product, you get to simplify your workflow while enhancing productivity.

We implemented thousands of customer requests and simplified the interface. The result is a modern and easy-to-use product. We worked closely with usability experts to eliminate workflow pain points.

Besides improving usability, several enhancements for acquisition and analysis were implemented. Please, go through the long list of new features and improvements at <https://belkasoft.com/new>.

We already got numerous rave reviews and feedback from beta-testers and early adopters. Here's one of them:

"Belka X is very very good release. The GUI has improved a lot. It is also very powerful as you can import every imaginable source that exists all over the world."
